What would be the normal situation? When would you use either one? A: With ~~XXXXXXXXXX~~, it is conveying your state of mind about the matter. In this case, it does not necessary match your grammar. By contrast, when you use ~~XXXXXXXXXX~~, you are conveying that you are thinking about this thing and that you are making decisions about it. Clear cell carcinoma of the upper urinary tract in children: clinicopathological and immunohistochemical study of 23 cases. To characterize the morphologic and immunohistochemical features of clear cell carcinoma (CCC) of the upper urinary tract in children. Cases of CCC of the upper urinary tract were identified from the files of the Department of Pathology at the Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto, between 1982 and 2002. Clinical data, including patient age, clinical stage, and treatment protocol, were retrospectively reviewed. The primary tumor was analyzed for the presence of high-risk histologic features and for expression of the following markers by immunohistochemistry: high molecular weight keratin, epithelial membrane antigen, Ber-Ep4, Wilms tumor 1 protein, inhibin, calretinin, alpha-inhibin, beta-
