What you get with AdWordiser: Create an ad free AdWordiser package. Create up to 100 keywords (free the number that suits you best) Get the information in seconds – no programming or analysis is needed Advertising is about getting people to respond to your offer Research shows that if you create the offers that entice people to take action then they'll buy whatever you have to offer How AdWords are calculated AdWords are calculated very differently by different advertisers. AdWordiser takes a very broad view of what AdWords are and AdWords are worth. AdWords are worth at least 50 cents for every US$1 spent on ads.

An AdWords price of less than 50 cents a day is much too cheap to be effective. AdWords are worth more than $1 per click depending on the number of clicks per day they generate. This number is used as an indicator of a advertisers worth. An AdWords price of $1 per click is an absolute deal breaker. AdWords are worth more than $25,000 for 1,000 clicks, but that's the outlier figure. AdWords are not worth less than 25 cents a click when searching for a search term. AdWords are worth more than 25 cents per click when doing keyword research. AdWords are worth more than 25 cents per click on the AdWords auction platform. AdWords are worth up to $25,000 a day. AdWords can generate thousands of conversions a day, so you need to price your ads in order to maximize your profit potential. AdWords are worth up to $25,000 a day. AdWords are worth more than 25 cents when running a search term as a pay per click publisher.

AdWords are worth more than 25 cents when you pay for a keyword phrase with Google AdWords search. AdWords are worth about 25 cents per day when offering content on an ad exchange. AdWords are worth 25 cents per click when your on the auction platform. AdWords are worth about 50 cents when you pay for a keyword phrase with Google AdWords search. AdWords are worth approximately 25 cents when you pay for a keyword phrase with Google AdWords search. AdWords are worth approximately $1 per click when you pay for a keyword phrase with Google AdWords search.

AdWordiser - is a Web-based software that finds keyword phrases and potential web sites that will fit any niche market you choose. If you search for one keyword phrase, Adwordiser will find sites that use that keyword phrase, but may not be the best sites for your niche, so you'll be able to find other keywords and niche markets that will provide you with a higher ROI. In addition, AdWordiser will also bring up the relevant Overture keyword combinations that the web site uses to drive traffic to that site. This means that once you've found the site you want to focus on, you'll be able to do a much more precise search and find other smaller sites that you may not have discovered otherwise. The large number of keywords that AdWordiser pulls from the three main search engines (Overture, Google, and Yahoo) is just the tip of the iceberg when it comes to what this software is capable of. After a simple setup, AdWordiser is completely customizable so that it can find sites that are optimal for virtually any niche market imaginable. What's so great about AdWordiser is that you don't need to be an experienced programmer to use it. Simply install and run the software. AdWordiser will automatically create a database of all the keywords associated with each site. When you type any keyword into the AdWordiser box, the software will automatically extract the related keywords and show you what sites are competing with you for that search phrase. You can then decide whether or not to choose any of those sites to use as your niche. AdWordiser includes the ability to add keywords as you choose them, which is great because there are many keywords that are constantly appearing on the Web that you can choose to add that are already going to drive a lot of traffic to your websites.

When this happens, AdWordiser will do a lot of the work for you and you won't need to open a database of your own.

AdWordiser includes a huge set of useful tools to make it easy to find and use the keywords that are driving a lot of traffic to your site. The site analysis tool will tell you how many people searched for a keyword, how many people searched for a related keyword, how many web sites are using that keyword, how much they're paying for that keyword and how much they're bidding. You can click on individual keywords to see the related phrases and web sites, and you can click on web sites to see who's competing with you. Using
