Masterpiece Mayan Silver 925-1791 Product Description An innovative and unique collection of silver. High quality natural materials used to create a timeless collection of Classic, Irish and Contemporary style designs. The Masterpiece Collection was designed to be a companion collection to the legacy of Jason and his children that live on in the company. In Jason's words "I have always enjoyed the crafts of the past and was looking for a way to bring the past into today's world." This silver collection is Jason's way of doing just that. A bidirectional association of pain and sleep disturbance is present in the general population, and is associated with multiple physical and psychological comorbidities. While good evidence exists for the medical and psychosocial benefits of maintaining good sleep, only a few sleep interventions have been developed and studied in large, rigorously-designed randomized controlled trials (RCT). Moreover, the relationship between sleep and pain has been understudied despite clear clinical evidence. In this application, we propose a multi-site RCT to test the efficacy of a novel, 3-
