No team has been able to do it twice in a row so far. Can you name the the players who have scored two consecutive wickets against the same team? A: Mohammad Ashraful, the Bangladeshi batsman, has 2 consecutive wickets in a row. On first occasion, against Kenya, he got the first two wickets of the innings, and then on second occasion, also against Kenya, he got the last two wickets of the innings. A: Pakistan have had 2 wickets in a row twice before: Against India in 2002, Mohd Yousuf performed two fine unbeaten knocks and Pakistan won the game. And against Sri Lanka in 2012, Salman Butt got a streak of 2 wickets in a row. A: In cricket, the creation of a streak of 2 wickets in a row is an achievement. The term'streak' means a series of similar events that occurs regularly. A streak of 2 in a row is therefore regularly occurring, and the question is whether it has ever been achieved. The obvious question is who holds the record, if anyone. However, another question is whether there have been any records ever broken by the'streak' itself. For example, there have been records of test batsmen scoring centuries in successive test matches. So, to answer the question on this site, there have been records set in earlier times that could have been broken by the streak of 2
