Product Description "The Unbelievable... allows a different perspective on the Kingdom."-Mark Driscoll Mark Driscoll was born in a log cabin in northern Washington state. He spent most of his early life in the Evergreen State and graduated from Bible college at age 19. He joined a local conservative ministry in Washington, where he worked as a pastor and evangelist for the next 16 years. Driscoll founded the Mars Hill Church in Auburn, Washington in 1996, while still serving as pastor. It is the largest megachurch in the Pacific Northwest, with more than 16,000 members. It has been named one of the most influential churches in the U.S. by Christianity Today and USA Today. The Unbelievable by Mark Driscoll is more than a book about a church. It is a book about the future of the Christian church in America. In The Unbelievable, Driscoll explores why and how the church is falling short of God's expectations. He looks at how the church can be reformed and reinvigorated and how it can connect to a lost generation in a way that points the church to a God-honoring, Christian mission. He also looks at the philosophical and social history of the church, drawing on his years in conservative evangelicalism to analyze and apply traditional church teachings and practices to contemporary Christian culture. He introduces the reader to the latest trends in historical, cultural, and psychological research, demonstrating how the church can apply this information to make its message more relevant, honest, and compelling. Mark invites readers to follow a
